BAUH

DESIGNED BY SÉRGIO BATISTA

BAUH

The Bauh sofa combines the classic charm of Bauhaus with contemporary elements, creating a perfect harmony between the past and the present. A piece of design history, shaped in a modern and elegant way, to pay homage to the iconic style while remaining relevant in the current context.

STRUCTURE

The structure of Bauh upholstery is complex and comfortable. The skeleton is composed of selected solid wood. The comfort layers feature elastic straps and medium-density foam on the seat, while the backrest features high-resilience foam cushions. The piece is supported by metal feet laminated with natural wood. Solid wood details are present on the arms and central table, which has a laminated MDF top.

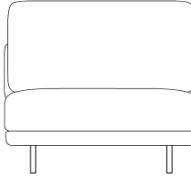

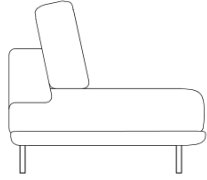

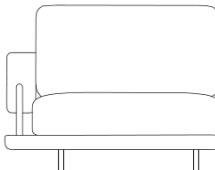

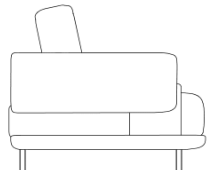

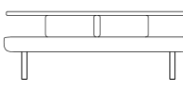

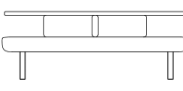

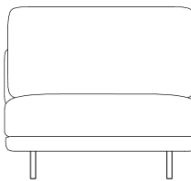

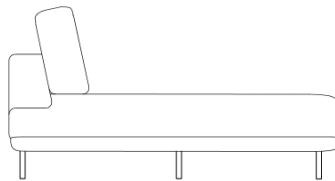

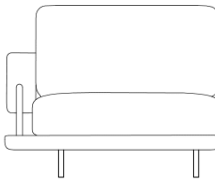

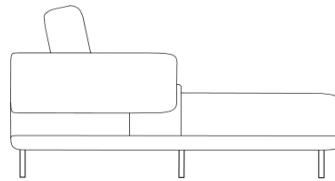

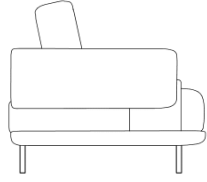

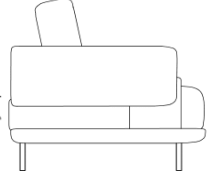

FINISHES/COATING

Finishes and coating available according to the price list. There is a wide variety of finishes and coating available to create unique pieces.
